THURSDAY EVENING, MAR. 28, 1901.

REMARKABLE DEVOTION.-The re markable devotion of a husband for an erring wife is the feature of the murder trial, now on in Brooklyn, of Margaret Estel, charged with the murder of George Deges, a wealthy Greek. The woman eloped with the Greek, I sving her husband and child. She lived with Deges for some time and then he began to show less attention to her and she became jesious of other women. she became jealous of other women. The shooting occurred after a violent quarrel between the two. Since her trial opened three days ago, Ernest Ertel, the forgiving husband, is constantly by his wife's side, doing all in his power to save her from the electric chair or imprisonment. At yesterday's se sion Ellen A. Greaves testified that she was Deges' wife until Mrs. Ertel supp'anted her. He sent her away to England, she sesuming her maiden name, and Mrs. Ertel became her husband's common law wife. John W. Webster testified that he once advised Mrs. Ertel to leave Deges and return to Webster testified that he once advised Mrs. Ertel to leave Deges and return to her husband. "She replied," said Webster, "that Deges was her little black man, she loved him and hated her husband and would live with Deges ner nueband and would live with Deges until he or she would die." E tel heard this testimony with tears in his eyes, while Mrs. Ettel bowed her head away from her busband. A policeman testified that Mrs. Ettel told him when she was arrested that she shot the Greek because he had insulted her.

Wrought and Cast Iron, Brass and Copper.

BY ELEVATING THE QUALITY of our coal we lower the price in economy of consumption. Consumers will find that it is cheaper to use our high grade Lee Coal, that has been screened and freed from slate and stone, than that of an inferior grade. It gives more heat, lees ashes and burns longer than any other coal, and our prices are as low as any. Coal and Wood under cover.
